

2010 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Dye Pot Day at Harlow Old Fort House

Saturday, May 22nd, 10 am to 2 pm

Join the spinners and crafters of the Harlow House Fiber Guild for a day of learning about natural dyes. Several dyepots will be simmering with natural materials. Special activities for children include dyeing a skein with Jello or creating a wet felted ornament to take home. Historic Harlow Old Fort House and gift shop open. Free admission. Refreshments available for fee.

Acoustic Evenings on the Hedge House Lawn

Beginning Friday, May 28th

The School's Out Summer Concert Series showcasing local musicians offers evening entertainment on the Plymouth waterfront. The Hedge House lawn provides an intimate coffeehouse setting for acoustic performances, presented by Brewster Productions. Shows are free and open to the public. For the full schedule, visit <http://brewsterproductions.com/concertseries/schedule>.

Memorial Cemetery Tour

Saturday, May 29th, 1 pm

Explore the rich history and romantic landscapes of Plymouth's 19th century rural cemeteries, Oak Grove and Vine Hills on a guided walking tour with Dr. Donna Curtin. Experience nature and art in one sublime setting and learn about historic Plymouthers interred here. Free and open to the public. Reservations required.

House Tours at the Hedge House Museum

June - August, Wednesday - Sunday, 2 to 6 pm

Visit the authentically restored 1809 Hedge House on the Plymouth waterfront. This gracious Federal mansion with unusual octagonal rooms was lived in by local merchants & entrepreneurs in the early years of the new nation. Admission: $5 adults, $2 children; free for members and Plymouth residents.

House Tours at the Harlow Old Fort House

June - August, Thursdays, 1 to 4 pm

Tour this rare surviving 17th century homestead, original home of William Harlow, local cooper, farmer, constable and sergeant of the Plymouth militia. Admission: $5 adults, $2 children; free for members and Plymouth residents.

Children's Performance of "The Corn Planting"

Harlow Old Fort House

Wednesday, June 9th, 10 am

Local third-graders from Cold Spring Elementary School star in this historical play about Plymouth's early settlers. Tours of historic house available. Gift Shop open. Free admission.

Antiquarian Hearth & Home Tours

Saturday, June 12th, 10 am to 4 pm

Explore a fascinating range of private homes in Plymouth, open to the public for this special one-day tour. Fee: $35, $30 members & advance discount. Includes luncheon.

Pilgrim Breakfast

Harlow Old Fort House

Sunday, June 27th, 8:30 to 11:30 am

This hearty New England breakfast is a local tradition not to be missed! Proceeds benefit the preservation of the 1677 Harlow House. Fee: $10, $9 members. Family discount available.

Teddy Bear Picnic

Spooner Secret Garden, 27 North Street

Saturday, July 10th, 10 am to noon

A lively morning of storytelling, hands-on activities, and a puppet play. Don't forget to bring your teddy bear! Recommended for ages 4 and up. Fee: $6 per person. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

PIP: Children's Summer History Program

Monday - Friday, July 12th - 16th, 9 am to 2 pm

A week-long program for children ages 7 to 12. Fee per child: $165 non-members, $125 members. Registration is required.

Antiquarian Summer Fair at the Hedge House

Saturday, August 28th, 10 am to 3 pm

Attic treasures, jewelry, homemade goodies, and bargains galore are some of the delights of this old-fashioned New England fair. Browsers welcome, free of charge! Fee for luncheon.

For reservations and more information:

Plymouth Antiquarian Society

www.plymouthantiquariansociety.org

Phone 508-746-0012 • E-mail pasm@verizon.net