

The Plymouth Antiquarian Society Presents:

BURIAL HILL TOURS ❖ SCHEDULE 2011/12

Tours are held every first Saturday of the month (except January) at 1 pm and will last approximately one hour. Participants may traverse steep and grassy slopes; please wear appropriate shoes. Tours are free and open to the public. Meet at the main stairway. Severe weather may cancel tour; check www.plymouthantiquariansociety.org for updates.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2011

A Burial Hill Primer Peg Baker

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2011

Christmas Tales & Traditions

Donna Curtin

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2012

Women's History on the Hill

Donna Curtin

SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 2012

Beginnings: The 17th Century Origins of Burial Hill

Stephen O'Neill

SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 2012

Finding Early Plymouth: A View from Burial Hill

Karin Goldstein

SATURDAY, MAY 5, 2012

Portrait Stones of Burial Hill

Donna Curtin

SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 2012

Seafarers on the Hill Peg Baker

SATURDAY, JULY 7, 2012

Plymouth's 18th century Stonecarvers

Peg Baker

SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 2012

Healers on the Hill: 18th century Physicians

Peg Baker

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 2012

Epitaphs: Conventional & Curious

Donna Curtin

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 2012

Revolutionary Heroes & Dastards

Donna Curtin

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2012

Winged Skulls & Strange Spirits: Eerie Carvings on Burial Hill

Peg Baker

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1, 2012

National Treasure: Evaluating the Significance of Burial Hill

Donna Curtin

MEET YOUR GUIDES

❖ PEG BAKER

Researcher, General Society of Mayflower Descendants; Director Emerita, Pilgrim Society & Pilgrim Hall Museum.

❖ DONNA CURTIN, PhD

Executive Director, Plymouth Antiquarian Society; Author of Plymouth Postcard History; Lecturer, Simmons College.

❖ KARIN J. GOLDSTEIN, PhD

Curator of Collections & Library, Plimoth Plantation; Adjunct Professor of History, Bridgewater State College.

❖ STEPHEN O'NEILL

Associate Director & Curator of Collections, Pilgrim Hall Museum; Lecturer, Suffolk University.